CONDUCT FOR ADULTS IN SCOUTING
(Refer P5.2 Policy and Rules)

Code of Ethics

Integrity - We demonstrate Integrity by:

- Acting with honesty, truthfulness and fostering appropriate healthy professional relationships
- Recognising and fulfilling where possible, our obligations to our community
- Taking responsibility for our own actions and developing integrity in others
- Acting with impartiality, truthfulness and honesty.

Respect - We demonstrate Respect by:

- Showing consideration to others, recognising each individual's uniqueness and diversity
- Minimising our impact on the environment and seeking to be good caretakers for future generations
- Committing to members well-being and on-going learning through the practice of positive influence, good judgement and empathy in practice.

Courage - We demonstrate Courage by:

- Providing challenging, developmental opportunities to empower young people
- Being good role models in Scouting, demonstrating positive attitudes and willingness to live by the Scout Promise and Law
- Being fair and reasonable

Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct is a personal commitment. Its purpose is to protect all Members of Scouting. It applies to all Members over the age of 18, regardless of location and role, when engaging with young people and adults in any form. This includes face to face contact and using technology such as on line formats. Parents, guardians and other adults who wish to actively participate in Scouting activities as a Youth Program Supporter must also follow this Code.

"I will set an example that I would wish others to follow.

Therefore, I will:

- respect the dignity of myself and others.
- demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility,
- recognise at all times that my words and actions are an example to other members of the Movement.
- act at all times in accordance with the Promise and Law, Code of Ethics and this Code of Conduct, thereby setting a suitable example for all.
- not use the Movement to promote my own beliefs, behaviours and practices where these are not compatible with Scouting Principles.
- adhere to the Scouts Australia Child Protection Policy and provide a safe environment for youth members participating in the Scout Program, their parents or guardians and visitors.
- report any conduct seen or heard that does not comply with this Code of Conduct to the appropriate Scouting person"

Where mandatory reporting is required, incident reports must be made to the police or designated State/Territory Authority in accordance with State or Territory Law and the nominated Scouting person should be advised. In all other cases the incident must be reported to the nominated Scouting person who shall report any suspicion or allegation of child abuse to the appropriate authority.

THE PURPOSE AND PRINCIPLES OF SCOUTING

The purpose of the Scout Movement is to contribute to the education of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual, emotional, social and spiritual potentials as individuals, as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international communities

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF SCOUTING

The Fundamentals of Scouting, as identified by the Founder, are that Scouts should serve God, act in consideration of the needs of others and develop and use their abilities to the betterment of themselves, their families, and the community in which they live. The three Principles are represented by a code of conduct which characterises all members of the Movement, and are referred to as "Duty to God", "Duty to others" and "Duty to self".

There are two versions of the Scout Promise to be used by all members (youth and adult). Individuals taking the Promise may choose to use either of them:

On my honour, I promise
To do my best,
To be true to my spiritual beliefs,
To contribute to my community
and our world,
To help other people,
Scout Law And to live by the Scout Law

On my honour
I promise that I will do my best
To do my duty to my God, and
To the Queen of Australia
To help other people
And to live by the

The Scout Law is:

- Be respectful
- Be friendly and considerate
 - Care for others and the environment
- Do what is right
- Be trustworthy, honest and fair
 - Use resources wisely
- Believe in myself
- Learn from my experiences
 - Face challenges with courage

DUTY TO GOD

1. The policy of the Scout Movement, which includes members with many different spiritual beliefs, is that all members should develop their relationship with the spiritual values of life by adhering to their spiritual principles, whilst respecting the spiritual choices of others.
2. The educational approach of the Movement includes helping young people to develop their spiritual beliefs and search for the spiritual values of life.
3. The privilege of adult leadership carries with it the obligation of encouraging the spiritual growth of youth members so that they may gain a deeper understanding of their spiritual beliefs as they progress through the Movement.
4. The growing spiritual relationship can be encouraged through the Youth Program and by the regular use of carefully selected reflections, prayers and other activities for everyday Scouting occasions.
5. Members who identify with a religion should be encouraged to attend services of their religion.
6. A gathering of members of the Movement, known as a Scouts' Own, may be held for the purposes of exploring spiritual beliefs and to promote fuller realisation of the Scout Promise and Law.
7. "Duty to God" refers to a person's relationship with spiritual values. Scouts Australia upholds the Principle of "Duty to God" through facilitating development of one's "Spiritual Beliefs".

DUTY TO OTHERS

Members are active global citizens, displaying loyalty, friendship, understanding and co-operation at local, national and international levels. This is achieved through responsibilities to families and communities, active participation in service to others, recognising and respecting the rights of others, and preservation of the environment.

DUTY TO SELF

Members have a responsibility to explore and develop confidence and self-respect, and seek to develop to their full potential through life-long learning
